- You MUST PRE-REGISTER FOR THE WORKSHOPS and CLINICS. You can register in person during walk-in hours, by e-mail, or by message phone. If you choose to register over the phone, it may take longer due to the high volume of calls.
 - Walk-in hours will be limited to assistance with brief matters that are not offered in workshops or clinics.
 - In order to receive help with the matters covered in the workshops and clinics, you will need to pre-register and come to the appropriate workshop or clinic.
 - Children are not allowed in the workshops and clinics. Please make arrangements for child care in advance.
 - You must be on time for the workshops and clinics. No late attendees will be allowed.
 - For additional information, please go to our website at www.shasta.courts.ca.gov and click on the link for the workshop or clinic you would like to attend.
