prior litigation with one of the intestate heirs, and the settlement and payment of $130,000 as a distribution in lieu of one-third of the estate assets as a result of that litigation are not mentioned in the report. As previously noted on February 6, 2023, the only authorized distribution of Mary Reide's intestate share is to the personal representative of her estate. If there is no personal representative of the estate, and no probate proceedings are going to be commenced, then her intestate heirs will need to follow the small estate affidavit procedure. This must be complied with in order for the Court to order distribution, and in order for the personal representative to have an actual person to whom they can make that distribution.
