On May 4th, 2009 Shasta County Marshal's deputies arrested Timothy Joseph Gould, 21 of Redding for willful infliction of corporal injury. Shasta County Marshal's deputies responded to an altercation outside the Shasta Superior courthouse in Redding. The altercation initially was thought to be an argument, however upon further investigation deputies determined that a crime of willful infliction of corporal injury had been committed by Timothy Gould on an unnamed victim.

During the altercation Timothy Gould was not compliant with the Deputies orders and was ultimately taken into custody. It was also learned that Timothy Gould was currently released from jail after posting bail for a previous domestic violence case. Timothy Gould was transported to the Shasta County jail without further incident.
